

Cafes, Restaurants and hidden Food Spots 🍕 🍔

	Sodo Pizza	Sourdough pizza restaurants with the focus on seasonal, sustainable produce & natural wine.	<input type="checkbox"/>
		📍 Bethnal Green, Clapton, Deptford, Hammersmith, Hoxton & Walthamstow @sodopizzalondon https://www.sodopizza.co.uk
	Yorkshire Burrito	Yorkshire burrito offers original British Street Food since 2015 in various locations across London. But the Camden Market Location is the most common one, because it's open from Monday to Sunday. They offer beef, chicken, shin and cauliflower cheese burritos with sides of various fries. As a side note ... you can order online :)	<input type="checkbox"/>
		📍 Camden Market, West Yard NW1 8AF @yorksburrito https://www.yorkshireburrito.com
	The Cheese Wheel	Opened in February 2017, the cheese wheel company is committed to make fresh pasta more accessible for people on the go. The homemade pasta is swirled in a 40kg huge wheel of Grana Padano and topped with various ingredients such as grilled mushrooms, chilli, pesto and pancetta.	<input type="checkbox"/>
		📍 Kerb Camden Market, London NW1 8AF @thecheesewheeluk
	Poppies Fish & Chips	The original London chippy „Fish and chips are fun, a guilty pleasure and a Great British old fashioned classic. The tempting aroma of the salt and vinegar draws you in and the crunch of the batter on the fish or the crisp on the chips is irresistible.“	<input type="checkbox"/>
		📍 Reservations for Poppies Spitalfields, Soho and Camden @popsfishnchips
	The Mac Factory	All their Mac's come with mouth watering classic cheese blend of Mature Cheddar and Mozzarella, topped with famous signature Parmesan and Thyme crumble. Packed with flavour, it's the ultimate cheesy comfort food.	<input type="checkbox"/>
		📍 KERB Camden Market West Yard, Camden Lock Place London NW1 8AF @thefactorylondon

	Flour to the people	A true Italian Sourdough pizza prepared 48 hours before served to customers and guests. Topped with only fresh and authentic ingredients. The crust is very soft but still thin and crunchy. It is a steal, you have to try! 📍 573 Battersea Park Road, London SW11 3BJ flour2people.com
	Flat Iron	„Great Steak for Everyone!“ If you want to eat an affordable high quality steak, that’s the place to go. Steak cuts combined with creamy spinach and crispy bone marrow garlic mash ... heavenly. But If you’re vegetarian or vegan, I would suggest to look for a different place :) 📍 Westfield, Covent Garden, Borough, Kings Cross, London Bridge, Marylebone, Shoreditch, Soho, Waterloo flatironsteak.co.uk
	Eat Tokyo	When you come to Eat Tokyo, you can choose from menu of sushi, sashimi, nigiri, unagi, ramen or you can have a bento box. It’s an authentic and cozy restaurant with numerous native guests ... mostly a good indicator for quality. One of the best sushi menus I’ve ever eaten. 📍 Folders Green, Notting Hill Gate, Soho, Holborn, Hammersmith, Covent Garden https://www.eattokyo.co.uk
	Kula Cafe	Kula has been serving Londoners famous Crepes, Waffles, Pancakes, Breakfast and Brunch for over 10 years from their cosy family-owned creperie in the heart of St Christopher’s place. But personally I can recommend the Classic Crepes with Nutella & Strawberries or the Double Chocolate Brownie Melt for the ultimate chocolate and sugar kick. 📍 21 James Street, Marylebone, London W1U 1DS kula-cafe.com
	Honest Burgers	Honest Burgers is a British burger restaurant, first opened in Brixton in 2011. You can find British beef burgers, free-range and halal chicken burgers, vegetarian and plant-based vegan burgers, and our homemade rosemary salted chips alongside beers from each restaurant’s local breweries. 📍 Baker Street, Borough, Covent Garden, Camden, South Kensington, Portobello, ... https://www.honestburgers.co.uk
